

BLACK EXCHANGE YOUTH PROJECT

The Black Exchange is a social initiative founded by Anna Fearon and Sade English. The Black exchange is all about relearning your history and unlearning western ideologies. With the community being central to our work of celebrating and uplifting the Black community, through learning history that has been erased from the curriculum and bringing people together to have important conversations with the aim of making positive change.

We would like you to create a poster that shows the values of Black Exchange and our manifesto, using our logo as a starting point. It is open to your creative interpretation.

Key words to inspire/with the option of including:

Community, Knowledge, History, Justice, Freedom, Equality

This is the Black Exchange Manifesto:

THE BLACK EXCHANGE MANIFESTO

AN UNLEARNING OF WESTERN IDEOLOGIES.
AN EXCHANGE OF KNOWLEDGE, FIGHTING FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE, EQUALITY AND LIBERATION.

IT STARTS WITH CONVERSATION, CONVERSATION
THAT LEADS TO ACTION.

WE STAND AGAINST INJUSTICE AND DISCRIMINATION.

WE STAND AGAINST INSTITUTIONALISED RACISM.
WE STAND UNITED AGAINST OPPRESSION.
